

Μύθος: Οι Άραβες δεν βοηθούν τους προσφυγές;

Αχμαντ Ελντίν

Μόνο η Σαουδική Αραβία από το 2011 φιλοξενεί 800.000 Σύρους προσφυγές δίνοντας τους δωρεάν παιδεία, δωρεάν ιατροφαρμακευτική περίθαλψη, εργασία και Δωρεάν κατοικία. Κυριολεκτικά, καμία χώρα, Μουσουλμανική η μη, δεν στήριξε τους Σύρους πρόσφυγες όπως η Σαουδική Αραβία. Τα ΜΜΕ όχι μόνο κρύβουν τέτοιου είδους γεγονότα, αλλά ορισμένοι έχουν το θράσος να συκοφαντούν την χώρα υποστηρίζοντας ότι «δεν ανοίγει τα σύνορα της να βοηθήσει και μένει απαθής». Και δεν είναι μόνο η βοήθεια προς τους Σύρους αλλά και προς άλλες εθνικότητες, Μουσουλμάνοι και μη Μουσουλμάνοι.

Η Σαουδική Αραβία φιλοξενεί περίπου δέκα εκατομμύρια αλλοδαπούς. Σχεδόν το ένα τρίτο του πληθυσμού της είναι ξένοι. Έχουμε: 800.000 Σύριους, 800.00 από την Υεμένη, 120.000 Παλαιστίνιους, 500.000 από το Μπαγκλαντές, 500.000 Φιλιπινέζους, 30.000 Σομαλούς, 20.000 Αφγανούς, 20.000 από το Νεπάλ, 230.000 Σουδανούς, 30.000 Αιθίοπες, 40.000 από την Ερυθραία, 10.000 από την Νιγηρία, και πολλούς άλλους όπως Ινδούς και Αιγύπτιους.

The United Nations General Assembly has passed a draft resolution, submitted by the Kingdom on behalf of 66 member countries, calling for the enhancement and protection of human rights in Syria and the cessation of the killings and atrocities being committed by the Damascus government. As many as 123 states voted for resolution No. A/C.3/68/L.42LRev.1, while 46 states abstained and 13 opposed.

Wednesday's vote was preceded by a thorough debate on the state of human rights in Syria. Presenting the draft resolution, Saudi Arabia's Permanent Representative to the UN, Abdullah bin Yahya Al-Maalami, expressed sorrow over the killings and abuses being carried out against the Syrian people with conventional and chemical weapons. He reiterated the Kingdom's disappointment with the international community for its failure to take effective action to end the crisis. Al-Maalami warned that every day the amount of killing, torture, imprisonment, oppression, abductions and rape against Syrian civilians increases, while the Syrian regime uses foreign militias to carry out massacres.

Citing UN reports, he pointed out that more than 100,000 people have been killed, around 9 million have been displaced, nearly half of the Syrian population is in dire need of food aid, polio and epidemic hepatitis are on the rise, and nearly 2.5 million people are being besieged inside Syria. Saudi Arabia Increases Aid for Syrian People

January 15, 2014

(Washington, DC) -- Today, Saudi Minister of Finance Dr. Ibrahim Al-Assaf announced that Saudi Arabia has increased its financial assistance for the Syrian people by $60 million, bringing the total for disbursement during the coming period to $250 million. Al-Assaf made the announcement while addressing the Second International Humanitarian Pledging Conference on Syria held in Kuwait.

Al-Assaf, who led the Kingdom's delegation to the conference, reaffirmed Saudi Arabia's commitment to the Syrian people. He stated, "The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia is keen to provide support for the Syrian refugees with aid totaling $448 million, about $260 million of which has already been paid in collaboration with a number of institutions working in the relief field for the Syrian people."

On January 22, 2014 Saudi Foreign Minister Prince Saud Al-Faisal said in an Official Statement:

"We realized that the most important content of this announcement is the formation of a transitional government with full powers in order to manage the state's affairs from political, security and military aspects. Bashar Al-Assad or any of his regime's symbols whose hands are stained with blood of Syrians will have no current or future role in this arrangement.

To get Syria out of this dark tunnel, our start to the desired solution should be based on the following elements: first, immediate withdrawal of all foreign forces and armed elements of the Syrian territories, including the Iranian Revolutionary Guard Forces and the Hezbollah militia; second, end the fighting and lift the siege on the Syrian cities and villages, including air strikes and artillery implemented by the regime; third, find safe areas and corridors for the delivery of aid to the Syrians under international supervision; fourth, release prisoners and detainees held by the Syrian regime. It is time to stop the bloodshed and end the suffering of the Syrian people. It is a favorable opportunity for us not to let down the Syrians again."

The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia issued the following statement:

The Royal Saudi Air Force today participated in military operations over Syria to confront terrorism emanating from Daash (ISIS) and to support the moderate Syrian opposition as part of an international coalition to defeat terrorism, which is a deadly evil afflicting the world, and to support the fraternal Syrian people to restore security, unity and to rebuild their suffering nation.

September 25, 2014 Prince Saud said in an Official Statement:

while a political settlement based on the Geneva Declaration is needed to end the conflict, the Kingdom is convinced that the regime of Bashar Al-Assad won't accept to sit down at the negotiating table unless the change of scales on the ground is in favor of the moderate forces. "In this sense, our support for the moderate Syrian opposition forces should not be limited to military support to counter terrorist groups in Syrian territory, but should include practical steps to weaken the Syrian regime by tightening the economic blockade, begin to pursue its symbols through the mechanisms of international justice for their crimes committed against the Syrian people, enhance its political isolation and encourage defections in the ranks of the civilian and military personnel from within the regime."

Prince Saud concluded that the regime of Bashar Al-Assad has lost its legitimacy due to its inhuman practices and policies that have created a fertile environment for terrorism, and; therefore, a solution to this dilemma will not be found, except through its departure from the political scene with those whose hands are tarnished with the blood of the Syrians."

The Kingdom Of Saudi Arabia welcomed thousands of Syrian Refugees into Saudi for residential stay without any stipulations, confines or Visa, and covered all their expenses and offered them shielding and sheltering

The Syrian Refugees were to choose from either 2 options:

- 1- That a Saudi citizen appoints the Syrian refugee and allows him to travel in Saudi Arabia, wherever he wills, for a certain period, that is continually extended (like the one carrying a visitors Visa),

2- That the Syrian Refugees chooses to be transferred to a large hotel in the city of Samtha (a town and sub-division in Jizan Province, in southwestern Saudi Arabia), where a flat is distributed for each Syrian family, and the government of Saudi Arabia covers his full food, drink, and clothing expenses. It is considered as temporary camps for the Syrians provided and funded by the Kingdom for an indefinite period.

Saudi funds 129 Million Riyaal ($34,399,542) for Relief projects for the displaced Syrians.

Information the reader must understand:

Saudi Arabia's population stood at 30.8 million at the end of 2014, a 2.6 percent rise from 2013, according to data released by the Kingdom's Central Department of Statistics and Information (CDSI).

There were 20.7 million Saudis, making up 67 percent of the population, while the number of foreigners stood at 10.1 million or 33 percent, according to an analysis conducted by the economics reporting unit of Al-Eqtisadiah.

The population had grown by 2.7 percent from 2012 to 2013, amounting to 29.2 million people. This consisted of 20.3 million Saudis and 9.7 million foreigners.

The CDSI said that the country's Gross Domestic Product (GDP) stood at SR2.82 trillion at the end of 2014, while per capita GDP was SR91,700.

Per capita GDP had grown by 9 percent over the past 11 years, an annual increase of SR4,900.

The highest per capita GDP growth was between 2004 and 2005, when it grew by 23 percent, or from SR43,000 to SR52,800.

According to the analysis, per capita GDP dropped 19 percent between 2008 and 2009, from SR87,600 to SR63,400, as a result of the global financial crisis.

The number of foreigners in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia amounts to more than 10 million, representing one-third of the population of whom are 600,000 Syrian's ! 800,000 Yemenis ! 120,000 Palestinians! 500,000 Bangladeshi! 500,000 Filipino! 30,000 Somalians ! 20,000 Afghan's ! 20,000Nepalis ! 230,000 Sudanis ! and 30,000 from South Sudan ! 30,000 Ethiopians ! 40,000 Eritreans ! 10,000 Nigerians ! and others, as for the Indian, Egyptian , Bangladeshi, Pakistani and Yemeni nationalities are the most common in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.

Note that the majority of these foreigners are expatriates meaning that THEY ARE NOT BORN IN SAUDI ! 500,000 out of the 600,000 Syrians and 460,000 or more out of the 800,000 Yemenis residing in Saudi are expatriates and refugees

Mohammed Alyahya (Associate Fellow At the Saudi Arabian King Faisal Center for Research and Islamic Studies, and Strategic Affairs at Royal Embassy of Saudi Arabia at London Coordinator - Office of the Ambassador) said in a recent interview with BBC News hour with Lyse Doucet on Sept, 5 2015:

"Zero is a very inaccurate number because Saudi Arabia doesn't have a refugee policy. There are 500,000 Syrians in Saudi Arabia that have been given visas, 3000 of which, based on a recent royal decree, have been given scholarships to attend university inside the kingdom. They are also given healthcare for themselves and their families but they are called visitors, they are not called refugees. Many of them are there to visit their families, who already live in Saudi Arabia. I can't speak to other Gulf countries but the number in Saudi Arabia is 500,000. ... This week we have seen a lot of focus on the refugee crisis after there was a spike in the number of refugees coming into Europe and after we saw these heart-breaking photographs of drowned civilian children and civilians but the refugee crisis has been going on for 4 years. It's as if people have forgotten Syria until that one picture of the child surfaced ... Whole families have come in and they have been given visas and their statuses have been formalised in Saudi Arabia. Just the fact that they're not called refugees doesn't mean that they aren't refugees. Putting the number at zero is extremely misleading. It just ignores the fact that there are 500,000 Syrians in Saudi Arabia as a result of this war that WEREN'T in Saudi Arabia before it." (End quote) [You can listen to the Interview in the sources at the end of my note]

Immigrants in Saudi make up more than 30% of the total population, according to UN data (2013) (July 2015 est.)

Hundreds of thousands of immigrants from all Islamic countries and others have always been welcomed, whether to ask for a livelihood or to seek knowledge or request asylum or security, and so on. Therefore, the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia has a significant burden that can not be borne alone manned with this number of migrants. Therefore it creates, provides, and funds refugee camps in Jordan, Turkey, Lebanon and elsewhere for Syrians and others, and as you have seen in my research here the enormous amount of aid and finances that the Saudi government has provided for (Syrian refugees only) which has exceeded billions of dollars let aside all the other nationalities including Yemeni refugees and others that the kingdom is funding and providing housings, camps, and aid for.

In addition to all this information I provided in my research that the majority of the people don't know about whether its the ignoramus haters on the kingdom or the non haters is that the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia in the 16th of March 2015 Saudi has entitled Four million (4,000,000) Burmese residents to obtain "Iqamaah" in Saudi and back in 23rd of March 2013 Prince Khaled Al-Faisal distributed free residency permits (iqamas) to the Burmese community and legalized the status of nearly 500,000 Burmese refugees ! The Saudi government provided Burmese with health care, social services, education and develop their residential areas as part of a comprehensive program. They also train them to get jobs. Also King Abdullah ordered the formation of a ministerial committee for the development of disorganized residential districts in Makkah to improve the situation of Burmese Muslims living in those districts.

So in fact Saudi already has welcomed hundreds of thousands of Syrians, Burmese, Yemenis and others also Saudi tries to decrease extending the visits in order for them to give a chance for other people to make 'umrah although they are not implementing this on Syrians !

Al-Luaydaan (Official speaker of the General Department of Passports) said: The extension of visits will be stopped starting from the end of next month Sha'ban except for Syrians living in the kingdom on a visit visa. One of the main reasons on the decision to stop the extension of the arrivals visits, is to provide an opportunity for others who want to make Umrah.

The Saudi Government has also decided Not to deport any Syrian citizen resident on its territory even if his residence permit has expired. The King gave orders not to deport Syrians or trouble them with legal accountabilities or irregularities because of the situation in Syria. This procedure applied to every Syrian in Saudi Arabia.

The reader must also understand that the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia is one of the countries around the world with the most enemies, and is being planned against from various enemies from the kufar and deviant Muslims, So they try hard to ruin the Kingdom's picture in front of the people, and always try to infiltrate Saudi in order to fulfill their schemes,

Saudi Enemies mainly fall under these divisions

1- The Zionists and Crusaders from the Jews & Christians

2- Shi'aa Rafida

3- Khawarij Takfiri Taffiri Extremists and Terrorists

4- Sufis and Grave worshippers

5- Ahbaash

Therefore it is always feared that anything might happen in Saudi especially that Syria has many Nusayri 'Alawi Shi'aa and Yemen has many Houthie Shi'aa, while the shiaa carry very dangerous extremist Aqeedah towards Saudi,

- The Cursed Imaam of Shi'aa Al-Khumayni said: The Islamic and non-Islamic world will not recognize our power until we control Mecca and Medina.
- Khumayni also says: When I conquer and enter Mecca and Medina, the first wajib upon me is to bring out (Al-Sanamayn) the two idols Abu Bakr and Umar from their graves -waleyazu bellah !-
- Former President of Iran Akbar Hashemi Rafsanjani said in Itila'at in 1987 : The Islamic Republic of Iran has the readiness of the war for the liberation of this sacred place (Al-Haramain). "
- Iranian Grand Ayatollah Hossein Khorasani says in his book [Al-Islam fi Daw'ul Tashay'u] : Every single Shiite upon the earth wishes to open and liberate Mecca and Medina and remove the Wahhabi's from ruler-ship
- It was narrated from Abu Jaafar said: The Mahdi of the Shi'aa will demolish the house (Ka'aba) he will not leave any of it except the bases. (Al-Raj'aa p.254)

قال المفضل : فما يصنع بأهل مكة ؟ .

قال : يدعوهم بالحكمة والموعظة الحسنة، فيطيعونه، ويستخلف فيهم رجلاً من أهل بيته، ويخرج يريد المدينة .

قال : ينقضه، فلا يدع منه إلا القواعد التي هي أول بيت وضع للناس ببكة في عهد آدم عليه السلام، والذي رفعه إبراهيم وإسماعيل عليهما السلام منها، وإن الذي بني بعدهما لم يبنه نبي ولا وصي، ثم يبنه كما يشاء الله، وليعفين آثار الظالمين بمكة والمدينة والعراق، وسائر الأقاليم، وليهدمن مسجد الكوفة، وليبنه على بنيانه الأول، وليهدمن القصر العتيق -ملعون ملعون من بناه- .

- Majlisi narrated from Abu Abdullah, he said: When the qa'em (Mahdi) comes out there will be nothing between him and the Arabs except for the sword (Bihaar Al-Anwaar 52/355)

- Abu Abdullah peace and blessings be upon him said: Do you know the first thing the Mahdi would do was
I said no
he said: He will bring out these two (Abu Bakr and Umar) and burn them and throw their ashes to the wind, and he will destroy the masjid (Masjid al-Harām) [Al-Anwaar Al-Mude'aa, Bahaa ul-Deen an-Najjafi, p. 339] [Bihaar al-Anwaar, Majlisi, 52/386] (This is a Sahih Hadith according to the filthy Shi'aa)

So this is how dangerous the Shiaa Rawafid are and anyone who has a glimpse of background on Saudi history they will know the many attempts of the shiaa to attack Makkah and Madina and the Ka'baa as well as the takfiri Khawarij even though that Khawarij do not wish to demolish the Ka'ba itself as the Shi'aa but they waged war against Saudi, made many attacks, suicide bombings, consider the Saudi government and its citizens apostates and desire to take over the rule in Saudi. Many incidents have happened and one of the famous ones was Juhayman al-'Utaybi incident when he hijacked the Ka'ba for two weeks and held the hujaj hostages under the gun.

After this lengthy detailed research its pretty clear how much the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia has aided the Syrian Refugees based on this what I provided from SUMMARIZED aid and financing it proves that their aid and finances when calculated is more than what all other countries from Islamic and non-Islamic have done all together ! So dont be fooled by the (Turkey, Jordan, Lebanon etc syrian refugee camps and that they let them in because the reality is that Saudi is the one covering the majority of the expenses of these camps, and they are the ones who actually built most of them, these refugee camps in those countries and Zaatari refugee camp etc. live off KSA money and aid ! so be aware of that. Stop being and ignorant hypocrite criticizing when you have no knowledge of the reality behind certain situations, you people speak as if you have thousands of Syrian refugees in your houses and finance them ! when you aid Syrian Refugees with more than 12-15 billion dollars as Saudi has or at least aid them with a QUARTER OF WHAT SAUDI HAS AIDED then open your mouth otherwise keep it shut and implement the hadith of the Messenger of Allah (pbuh): He who believes in Allah and the Last Day must either speak good or remain silent."

Most of you speak like hypocrites waleyazu bellah taking sides with the kufar and claiming that they have done good for the Syrian refugees ! The disbelieving governments mostly do this out of political, foreign, and public interest not for the love of the Syrian Muslims as Saudi does, and the aid of those non-muslims is 1% compared to what Saudi has aided for Syrians and others.

Allah aza wajjal says: [Neither those who disbelieve from the People of the Scripture (Jews and Christians) nor Al-Mushrikun (the disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah, idolaters, polytheists, pagans, etc.) wish that any good should be sent down to you from your Lord. But Allah selects for His mercy whom He wills, and Allah is the possessor of great bounty.]

So be thankful to Saudi instead of criticizing out of ignorance !

The Prophet (ﷺ) said: He who does not thank the people is not thankful to Allah. [Sunan Abi Dawud 4811, Sahih Aljami 1926]
